

BACK FROM THE FRONT

ART, MEMORY AND THE AFTERMATH OF WAR

EVENTS PROGRAMME

JULY - SEPTEMBER

Back From the Front - Art, Memory and the Aftermath of War explores the theme of conflict and memory across a series of interrelated exhibitions, including Brothers in Art: John and Paul Nash; Shock and Awe, Re-membering I, Re-membering II and The Death of Nature.

SATURDAY 26 JULY 11:30AM

Shock and Awe: Contemporary Artists at War and Peace 'Walk and Talk'

Free with exhibition entry

Professor Paul Gough RWA will lead an informal 'walk and talk' tour of this challenging, diverse and fascinating exhibition.

SATURDAY 2 AUGUST 2PM

Brothers in Art: John and Paul Nash 'Walk and Talk'

Free with exhibition entry

An informal tour of the Nash show led by exhibition curator Gemma Brace.

SATURDAY 9 AUGUST 2-5:30PM

Art and War: Truth, Propaganda and Protest
Half-Day Workshop | £10 | £5 Friends, RWA, Artist Network Members and Students

Looking at the wider themes of the exhibition, this half-day workshop will combine gallery-based talks with an illustrated lecture led by exhibiting artists and Dr Grace Brockington, senior lecturer in Art History, University of Bristol.

SATURDAY 30 AUGUST 2PM

Shock and Awe: In discussion...

Free with exhibition entry

Join Dr Hazel Brown, Project Research Assistant (UWE First World War Centenary projects) and exhibiting artists, for an informal, gallery-based discussion.

SATURDAY 13 SEPTEMBER 10.30AM – 4.30PM

Landscape and the things behind: The Places and Paintings of the Nash Brothers; Art History Day School £30

This study day led by Dr Justine Hopkins, offers an opportunity to explore the paintings of the Nash brothers. The day will include three lectures and a tour of the show.

Image Credits:

-Mercenaries, Jill Gibbon, 2013, inkjet printing

-A Gloucestershire Landscape, John Northcote Nash, 1914, oil on canvas, WA1978.67

© Ashmolean Museum, University of Oxford © The estate of John Nash. All Rights Reserved 2014, Bridgeman Art Library

-Richard Hamilton 'Hutton Award Medal of Dishonour' 2008, bronze, Copyright Richard Hamilton Studio, courtesy Rita Hamilton.

For further information please visit www.rwa.org.uk

Booking: 0117 9735129, or visit RWA reception.

BACK FROM THE FRONT

ART, MEMORY AND THE AFTERMATH OF WAR

CHILDREN'S WORKSHOPS

JULY - SEPTEMBER

SATURDAY 16 AUGUST 11AM - 3PM

Block Printing Workshop

With Jenny Blackwood

Drop-in Session | Free with exhibition entry

Suitable for 5-13yrs and their families

Join us as we take inspiration from the Brothers in Art and Shock and Awe exhibitions, creating landscapes, still life arrangements and block prints. Participants are invited to bring their own photographs of places, people or objects to help inspire their work.

SATURDAY 6 SEPTEMBER 10:30AM - 12PM

Mythical Masks: Children's Workshop

With Eden 4 Artists

Free with exhibition entry

Suitable for children aged 5-8

Please book in advance to avoid disappointment.

A mask-making workshop for young children, inspired by Back from the Front. The workshops will include 2D and 3D work, such as drawing and mask-making with a nod to myths, legends and fairy tales.

SATURDAY 6 SEPTEMBER 1:30PM - 3:30PM

3D Landscapes: Children's Workshop

With Eden 4 Artists

Free with exhibition entry

Suitable for children aged 8-11

Please book in advance to avoid disappointment.

Come and create your own 3D landscapes, inspired by the paintings of Paul and John Nash.

All children attending these workshops need to be accompanied by an adult.

For further information please visit www.rwa.org.uk

Booking: 0117 9735129, or visit RWA reception.

Image Credits:

Middle image: Stephen Hurst 'Signal Still Life' 1990, bronze on slate base